GOING TO CANADA.

The principal Opposition organ of the city of Chicago, this morning, thinks the Democratic party will have a rough time of it for the next four years, and intimates that many of the Democrats may emigrate to Canada. It says:

> The Democracy will be found at any time in the front rank of the opposition to the encroachments of the Administration upon the rights of the people, and it is to be hoped that they will go to the ballot-box with the determination to vote down the party which trembles before the frowns of power, and which has not the courage to stand up for the rights of the people. Those who do not will be disfranchised, and will have no one to blame but themselves. Any who tremble at the frowns of power, and who will not stand up for their country—may be called upon to fight for it. Those who do not will be found crying over the graves of their sons who fell in the struggle for liberty, and who have not the courage to stand up for their country's rights. Those who have a united North and Union, we shall soon have a united North and Union, we shall soon have a united North and Union, we shall soon

THE PAPER.

All rest quiet in the Army of the Potomac to-day. Lee did not attempt to disturb the balloting in our lines, thinking, probably, that he could do more in that line at the North than we could here. Whether he succeeded or not is not yet known, but that could be done in his behalf, and he has failed—only there were not votenough.

The Cairo dispatch reports important military changes in command below that point. Gen. Grierson has been relieved from the command of the District of Memphis, and Gen. Washburne assigned to that command. Gen. Grierson is ordered to report to Gen. Hurlbut at Memphis.

Gen. Sherman is no longer doubted about New York. His name is on the list of Electors, obtained from Albany, and he has been duly elected. Dispatches from Louisiana give an impression that Gen. Banks will be elected by the Electors of the State, obtained from the polls on the 8th inst. On the contrary, quite the reverse is the case. The vote is growing close on the rebels. On the contrary, quite the reverse is the case. The vote is growing close on the rebels.

Gen. Sherman reports that he has received no report to Gen. Grant from Gen. Thomas. There is no longer doubt about New York
